

ACCT 101: Practical Accounting

Syllabus—Fall 2014

Dr. Al Taccone

Welcome to our Practical Accounting class! This course is the first step towards mastering "the language of business." Success in the class is directly related to attending class, completing assignments, and participating regularly. I look forward to working with you towards a rewarding experience that results in you meeting your personal, professional and educational goals.

Course Description

Directed toward students preparing for ACCT 201 and the bookkeeping and accounting certificates, this course covers record keeping for sole proprietorships in service and trade businesses, including worksheets, adjusting and closing journal entries, payroll, cash reconciliation, and preparation of financial statements. Practical problems are stressed, and students are required to complete an accounting practice set for a company. (Formerly BUS 101)

Course Objectives and Student Learning Outcomes

The business and accounting programs at MiraCosta College educate, develop and prepare students to successfully meet the multidisciplinary, technological and ethical challenges of a dynamic global business environment. The faculty has identified three student learning outcomes (SLOs) that students should be competent in as a result of their studies:

- Complete an accounting cycle for a sole proprietorship according to generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). This SLO is assessed via the practice set that is due by December 6, 2014.
- Generate and record payroll and payroll-related liabilities in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations. This SLO is assessed via the online exam that is due on November 16, 2014.
- Explain and apply the principle objectives and practices of proper internal control and/or evaluate ethical standards in a given business situation. This SLO is assessed via the chapter 6 MAL assignment due on October 25, 2014.

SLO Assessments are noted in the weekly schedule.

Course Objectives:

- Judge the meaning of complex statements and the quality of logical conclusions, calculations, and concept applications.
- Analyze the Annual Report of a major corporation using complete sentences, spelling accounting terms correctly and writing with reasonable clarity.
- Complete a manual accounting simulation (practice set).

Course Content

Each class meeting will begin with a review of homework assignments followed by presentation of new material in lecture, practice problem solving and class discussion format. Students should be prepared by reviewing homework solutions available on the course Blackboard site prior to class for the purpose of asking questions about homework between classes and at the start of each class. Any assignments that are graded will not have solutions available on the Blackboard site. Working papers for all assignments are available at the Blackboard site for this class.

Online quizzes (one per chapters 1-12) are administered through My Accounting Lab (MAL) and consist of objective questions and brief problem solving. Online quizzes are due by 11 p.m. every Saturday. Due dates are also noted in the weekly schedule.

Online problem assignments (one per chapters 1-12) are administered through My Accounting Lab (MAL) and are due by 11 p.m. every Saturday. Due dates are also noted in the weekly schedule.

NOTE: Instructions for logging in and using My Accounting Lab (MAL) are attached to this syllabus and are available on the main menu of the course Blackboard site. The My Accounting Lab (MAL) URL is www.pearsonmylab.com may be accessed through the menu of the Blackboard site for this class (click on MAL button on left of screen).

One practice set will be open in My Accounting Lab (MAL) on October 6, 2014 and is due on or before 11 p.m. on December 6, 2014.

Three equally weighted exams (midterm, final and one online) will be administered on the dates indicated in the weekly schedule and will consist of objective questions and problem solving based on homework assignments. A review sheet will be posted in the "content" menu in Blackboard at least one week prior to each exam date.

In class extra credit assignments will be offered periodically. Students must attend and complete extra credit assignments to receive credit.

The last day to withdraw from this course for no grade is August 29, 2014. The last day to withdraw from the course and receive a grade of "W" is November 14, 2014.

Attendance Policy:

Attendance is required in this course. No absences will be excused.

Attendance is critical to teaching and learning. You will fall behind in acquiring course content and skills if you do not attend every class. Situations can occur, however, that are beyond your control and require you to miss class(es). If you miss a class, make arrangements with a classmate to keep you informed on lecture topics, handouts, and assignments. See course content and grading criteria for online attendance requirements. All material necessary to be successful in this course is not necessarily found in the textbook or Blackboard site. You must be present to receive credit for attendance, exams, extra credit, quizzes, and assignments. Assignments must be turned in by due dates. No make-ups of any kind will be allowed. Contact the instructor immediately if extenuating circumstances will prevent you from attending class. E-mail is the best way to communicate with the instructor. Instructor will respond to e-mails within 24 hours of receipt. Though instructor may respond on weekends students should not expect responses on weekends. Instructor reserves the right to withdraw students for lack of attendance (missing 2 or more classes in a row) or lack of progress. Should you miss class, you should refer to the class Blackboard site for class announcements, lecture notes, syllabus, weekly schedule, in class and homework practice exercise and problem solutions, and exam study guides. Students must be present to earn extra credit offered in class.

Tardiness:

Classes will begin promptly at 5:30 p.m. Attendance will be taken at the start of each class. Promptness is expected. See course content and grading criteria for online attendance requirements. No make ups due to tardiness allowed.

Assignments:

Completing ALL assignments is critical to success in this course. Completing and understanding all assignments will enhance success on all assessments and future assignments. Please contact instructor via e-mail or at the start of each class with questions on assignments. Working papers for all exercises and problems are located in the course Blackboard site. The course Blackboard site also has link to problem solutions to check student work. Homework assignment solutions will be available on the Blackboard site on the date each chapter is started in class. See the weekly schedule for practice set assigned and due dates.

Academic Honesty:

All tests and assignments are to be the work of the student. Any exams or assigned work that is turned in by the student for a grade, but, is not the original work of that student will be deemed unacceptable and the student will receive zero points for that work.
