1	Is very proficient about this. Very helpful to me with the reminders.	Nov 9, 2012 10:30 AM

Q2. Are appropriate and current multimedia technology and communication tools used in the class? (audio, video, discussions, blogs, games, testing, homework managers, webcasts, etc.)

1	Yes, love the integration of the online program which helps track and monitor your progress. Just feels still a little lost because I am not sure what material would be the most beneficial for me to use or which would be a waste of my time.	Nov 9, 2012 10:30 AM

Q3. What advice would you give to a student taking this class and/or instructor next semester?

1	Take time to review the cases that are referred to in the book and questions. Do some independent research. It will help you get more context.	Nov 9, 2012 2:42 PM
2	Make sure that you do the practice problems and for the midterms know how to do all of the sheets without needing anything else.	Nov 9, 2012 10:35 AM
3	Advise students that the book is helpful but not the main source of the studies. The PPT present sums up the book and to focus mainly on the "Help Me Solve" tool is extremely vital for a non-accounting major student.	Nov 9, 2012 10:30 AM
4	don't take online if you have trouble learning.	Nov 5, 2012 11:27 AM
5	Check the BB in a daily bases and try to do as much as the study guide in the My Accounting lab to get you ready for the homework and test.	Nov 5, 2012 10:46 AM

Q5. What could be improved with this class?

1	Simplify homework document standard to word format. Remove fields from submission that you don't want data in, or don't complain about people typing in the fields. Empty fields in a submission form create anxiety for the students, especially new ones.	Nov 9, 2012 2:42 PM
2	Maybe more practice filling in the balance sheets outside of the homework problems	Nov 9, 2012 10:35 AM
3	Organization. I felt like I had so things being thrown at me with the book, online program, resources, online PPT, video, and Study Plan. I'm an old fashion gal I guess because I like everything I need to know from the book only. That is why I pay so much for it and so I study from it.	Nov 9, 2012 10:30 AM

1	I thought the course covered the topics well.	Nov 9, 2012 2:42 PM
2	no	Nov 9, 2012 10:35 AM
3	I wish the concepts from the chapters should be included in the homework since we do get tested on it within the exams. Not adding to the homework but rather change some of the problems to them.	Nov 9, 2012 10:30 AM
4	n/a	Nov 5, 2012 11:27 AM
